NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

-An intercepted dispatch of Gen. Beauregard's, which is said to have fallen into the hands of Gen. Mitchel, has been published. If the dispatch is genuine-which may be doubted-it throws much light on the position of the Rebel army at Corinth. Beauregard, writing on the 9th inst., says he had at that date only 35,000 eff-ctives, 15,000 more being expected to join him from Van Dorn's corps. It will be seen from what we publish elsewhere that there are circumstances which throw discredit on the document in which these facts are noted; but it may nevertheless be authentic.

-From Fredericksburg we have a report that the City Council had held a meeting immediately after the appearance of the National forces, and appointed a Committee to wait upon Gen. Angur relative to the occupation of the place and the protection of property. Citizens who have escaped from Fredericksburg affirm that as soon as the National forces are in possession, much concealed loyalty will be
